

Making it possible for you to make a big difference in the future – today emagine is committed to dramatically increasing the level of planned charitable giving by individual Canadians like you.

Entrepreneurs, Executives and Investors like you, through your vision and initiative, are engines of economic growth and wealth creation. Through your leadership and financial commitment you can also be a powerful force for building stronger communities.

emagine encourages you to pledge between 1% and 5% of your future capital gains or earnings to the charities of your choice. Whether you decide to pledge a portion of your annual earnings, your capital gains next year or your capital gains ten years from now it doesn't matter. Large or small, your contribution can make a big difference.

Demonstrate your philanthropic leadership today and inspire others to take the emagine Pledge.
